

I trust that you will vote for rules that serve the public, not the monopolies that serve private interests. The airwaves are owned by the public & their interest comes first.